

NALOXONE IN AUSTRALIA

— now the trail is broken —
WHO WILL FOLLOW
ALONG?

Four peer-based organisations: CAHMA, WASUA, Harm Reduction Victoria and QUIHN are pleased to present a three part workshop examining the history, present and future of peer-based naloxone and opioid overdose prevention training in Australia.

1. A review of peer-based naloxone programs in Australia: What makes peer-based approaches unique?
2. A demonstration of peer-based naloxone training.
3. A panel session exploring the future and potential of naloxone in Australia.

For further information please contact sionec@cahma.org.au

<http://www.apsadconference.com.au/program/workshops/#CAHMA>

WHERE: Riverbank Room 1, Adelaide Convention Centre

WHEN: Sunday November 9, 2:15 - 4:30 pm

COST: Free of charge (registration required)

This workshop is made possible by an education grant from UCB.

CAHMA

