

Formed in 2014 through CREIDU

Key stakeholders involved in jurisdictional naloxone programs to share information and strategise for expanding take-home naloxone (THN) programs in Australia

Key stakeholders from jurisdictional:

- peer organisations,
- harm reduction services,
- peak bodies,
- government departments, and
- research institutes

2016 rescheduling

Lenton, S., Dietze, P. & Jauncey, M. Australia reschedules naloxone for opioid overdose. 2016, MJA: <https://www.mja.com.au/journal/2016/204/4/australia-reschedules-naloxone-opioid-overdose>

Federal THN pilot

Australian Government Department of Health: Take home naloxone pilot. <https://www.health.gov.au/initiatives-and-programs/take-home-naloxone-pilot>

Variation in jurisdictional access

THN Infographic

Variation in jurisdictional access to THN

Extra changes due to COVID-19

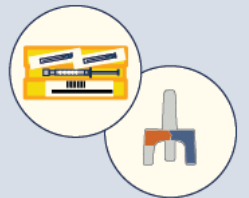

= a lot of great progress to keep track of!

NNRG has created an infographic to present up-to-date information on THN by jurisdiction

It will be updated each time the NNRG meets

Audience:

- Consumers
- Policy makers
- Service providers
- Advocates

Available on CREIDU website:

<https://creidu.edu.au/naloxone>

Naloxone access, distribution and training

THN products available

Exclusions of good Samaritan protection for intoxication

THN distributed through EDs

OST guidelines with THN

Naloxone training within First Aid

THN distributed by paramedics

Peer training available

THN distributed through NSPs/AOD

Naloxone carried by police

Training available online

THN distributed upon prison release

*Faded icons: projects in the works!

The National Naloxone Reference Group

Coordination

Paul Dietze and Penny Hill
(Burnet Institute)

NT

Shayne Kilford and Peter Sidaway
(NTAHC)

VIC

Jane Dicka and Sione Crawford (Harm Reduction Victoria)

Suzi Nielsen (Monash University)

Tom Lyons and Frankie Hopkins (DHHS)

Craig Harvey (Barwon Health)

Stuart Kinner and Claire Keen (Melbourne University)

James Petty (VAADA)

John Ryan and Stephen McNally (Penington Institute)

ACT

Anke van der Sterren (ATODA)
Chris Gough and David Baxter (CAHMA)
Megan Arnold (ACT Health)

QLD

Jeremy Hayllar (Qld Health)

SA

Stephen Lymb and Michelle Spudic (SA
Health)

NSW

Phill Read, Rosie Gilliver and John Kearley
(Kirketon Road Centre)
Nick Lintzeris (Langton Centre)
Angela Matheson, Lauren Monds and
Nicola Lewis (NSW Health)
Marianne Jauncey, Ed Silins and William
Wood (Sydney MSIC)

TAS

Raimondo Bruno (UTAS)
Myf Briggs (Tas Health)
Jackie Hallam (ATDC)

WA

Simon Lenton (NDRI)
Grace Oh (MHC)
Paul Dessauer (Peer based Harm Reduction WA)

